PART 1

This question is compulsory.

It is recommended you spend approximately 30 minutes on this question.

Question 10

From a historical and contemporary perspective, it has been debated that we need to leave natural places 'better than we found them'. As population growth and tourism numbers increase to popular and iconic destinations, there is a concern for the future long-term management of such pristine areas.

Discuss how human interactions, visitor use and visitor experience have changed over time within natural places, national parks and wilderness areas.
